

Kate Pellerin is a bilingual Canadian illustrator who goes by Poopikat. Her interest in drawing began with simple character designs inspired by dreams and folklore. Kate studied at the Ontario College of Art & Design, and earned a diploma from Seneca College's Illustration program, specializing in picture book illustration.

I LOVE TO ILLUSTRATE children's books because they're filled with every imaginable possibility! I'm drawn to whimsical, adventure-filled stories with vibrant colors and interesting shapes.
