

Ginnie Hsu creates art that is informed by her Taiwanese roots and profound connection to nature. She finds inspiration in the magic of everyday interactions and loves small, cozy details. When Ginnie isn't creating, she enjoys teaching art at Syracuse University, adventuring with her dogs, or relaxing in her flower garden.

New

“MY IDEAL project would explore the bonds within an adoptive family. I also love stories about shared adventures, eco-consciousness, and unspoken love.”

PUBLISHED

ROCKY POND

CLARION

QUARTO

FEIWEL & FRIENDS