

Diana Castillo grew up in Havana and moved to Florida at a young age, where she went on to get a BFA in Illustration from Ringling College of Art and Design. Prior clients include Disney and Nintendo. Diana loves storytelling and drawing family dynamics, playful kids, and magical environments.

“I'M ATTRACTED to stories with charming characters in playful scenarios. Whether that's an underwater castle, a loud family dinner, or a magical forest! Having grown up an island girl I'm also fascinated by mermaids and would love to work on a Latinx mermaid story!
